CHAPTER 199.

AN ACT to incorporate the Roman Catholic Asylum for Widows, in the city of Baltimore. Passed
Mar. 10, 1854.

WHEREAS, The Most Reverend Francis Patrick Kenrick, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore; the Very Reverend Henry B. Coskery, rector of the Cathedral Church of Baltimore, James W. Jenkins, Charles Oliver O'Donnell, Doctor Richard McSherry, and Michael Courtenay Jenkins, by their petition to this General Assembly, have shown that Margaret Burke, widow, late of the said city, deceased, by her last will and testament in writing, duly proven and recorded, dedicated and devised her house and lot, number one hundred and twenty-three, Mulberry street, in the said city, as an asylum for Roman Catholic widows, under the direction of the reverend directors of the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Baltimore, and that the said petitioners have associated together for the purpose of carrying out the benevolent intentions of the said testatrix, and for that purpose have prayed to be incorporated; and it appearing to this General Assembly that the said object is laudable, and can be attained by special act and not under any general law; Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Francis Patrick Kenrick, Henry B. Coskery, James W. Jenkins, Charles Oliver O'Donnell, Doctor Richard McSherry and Michael Courtenay Jenkins, their associates and successors, be, and they are hereby created and made a body corpo-
